SACRAMENTS

Holy Sacrifice of the Mass

Saturday (anticipated): 5:30 PM

Sunday: 8:00 AM; 10:30 AM;
12:00 PM

Monday-Saturday: 8:00 AM

Holy Days of Obligation: see inside

Penance & Reconciliation:

Monday-Thursday; Saturday: 7:30-7:50 AM

Saturday afternoon: 4:00-4:50 PM

A Catholic is obliged to confess serious sins in kind and number to a priest. If one is conscious of having committed serious sin, Confession ought to be made before receiving the Eucharist.

Baptism: Please call to arrange for your child's baptism before or soon after birth. A Godparent must be a Catholic in good standing.

Anointing of the Sick:

Please call for a priest to celebrate this Sacrament of Healing and Forgiveness for someone who is seriously ill or in danger of death. Do not wait until the sick person is unconscious.

Matrimony:

All Catholics ought to seek to have their marriage blessed by the Church so as to live in God's good graces & receive the Eucharist. Marriage cannot validly exist between baptized persons unless it is also a sacrament (Canon 1055.2). Contact a priest a year prior to the intended date of marriage to ensure proper preparation.

Confirmation: Need to complete your Sacraments of Initiation? Call Mrs. Kachnowski at 908-245-6572. She will help you prepare for confirmation. If they can do so without serious inconvenience, Catholics ought to receive the Sacrament of Confirmation before being admitted to marriage (Canon 1065).

RCIA: Desire baptism? Called to be a Catholic Christian? Contact Deacon David at 908-245-6572 and he will help you discern God's call to holiness.

Donation of Bread for the Mass

During Lent and through Eastertide, we are professing the faith via the Apostles' Creed. This is recommended in the Roman Missal for it reminds us of the many who will profess their Catholic faith for the first time at their baptism. It is also known as the Symbol of the Roman Church.

Where is the Apostles' Creed found in the Bible?

I believe in God, the Father almighty, (Gen 17:1; Mt 5:45)

Creator of heaven and earth, (Gen 1:1, Rom 1:20) and in Jesus Christ, his only Son, our Lord, (Mt 3:17; Phil 2:11)

who was conceived by the Holy Spirit, (Luke 1:35)

born of the Virgin Mary, (Luke 1:27; 2:7)

suffered under Pontius Pilate, (John 19:16)

was crucified, died, and was buried; (John 19)

He descended into hell; (1 Peter 3:19; Heb 2:14)

on the third day he rose again from the dead; (Acts 10:40; Mt 28:1; John 20:11)

He ascended into heaven, (Luke 24:51)

and is seated at the right hand of God (Heb 1:3)

the Father almighty; (Mark 14:36)

from there He will come (Mt 16:27)

to judge the living and the dead. (Acts 10:42; 2 Tim 4:1)

I believe in the Holy Spirit, (John 14:25-26; Acts 1:8)

the holy catholic Church, (Mt 16:18; Ephesian 5:25-27)

the communion of saints, (Luke 22:32; 1 The 5:11)

the forgiveness of sins, (John 20:22-23; Acts 10:43)

the resurrection of the body, (1 Cor 15:51; 1 Thes 4:13-14)

and the life everlasting. (1 John 5:20)

Amen.

WANTED: COMMUNION MINISTERS & READERS

Readers for Mass: please consider this ministry. As a reader you proclaim the word of God during the celebration of Holy Mass.

Communion Ministers: please consider the awesome ministry of assisting Father in the distribution of Holy Communion at Mass and perhaps to the home bound.

Please call Father at 908-245-1107 and let him know you would like to be considered for either of these ministries.

The Lazarus Ministry

Those who share their faith with the bereaved help them in a time of great stress. Planning the Funeral (Mass of Christian Burial) is important to the Catholic faithful. The Lazarus ministry helps in selecting music and readings, but most of all it helps the family in their time of need. As Jesus said, "Blessed are those who mourn, for they will be comforted." Be Christ's presence in this time of grief. Call Marge Denci at 908-507-6306 to find out more & volunteer.

Save the Children from "adult" websites.
Protect your chastity, now!

Go to Freefiltering.org and learn how to block those unwanted sites from your eyes. Protect your virtue, guard your children's innocence.

It really works by blocking sites in your Wi-Fi server. Act now before your children see one more pornographic site or one more "social media" site promoting the LGBTQ+ propaganda.

Sanctity of Life

RACHEL'S VINEYARD

The Church can also be a place to heal. We are called to "be merciful like the Father." So many are suffering from the effects of abortion. Where can they heal? Where can they feel safe and loved?

The Archdiocese of Newark Respect Life Office will be hosting four upcoming Rachel's Vineyard retreats in 2022 to heal the wounds from abortion. Retreat dates are:

September 22-24

Contact the Respect Life Office for more details by calling 973-497-4350, or e-mail:

Recovering the Full Celebration of the Liturgy Liturgical Ministers

Liturgical ministers ought to discharge their office therefore with the sincere devotion and decorum demanded by so exalted a ministry and rightly expected of them by God's people. Consequently they must all be deeply imbued with the spirit of the liturgy.
—Sacrosanctum Concilium, 29

Liturgical celebrations require the functioning of a variety of ministries in order to project a rich, full expression of the very nature of the Church—a microcosm of the Body of Christ. At Mass in particular, a priest presides, often with the assistance of a deacon. Acolytes serve; readers proclaim the word of God to the assembly; extraordinary ministers of Holy Communion assist with the distribution of the Body and Blood of Christ.

Ushers and greeters welcome the people of God as they assemble and assist with the gifts and the collection. Cantors and instrumentalists support the singing of the assembly while choirs add beauty to the liturgy with trained voices. The Constitution on the Sacred Liturgy tells us that, “servers, readers...and members of the choir also exercise a genuine liturgical function.” In other words, these ministries are a necessary part of the liturgy, not just “add ons” to help the priest. The plurality of ministries in the liturgy should reflect the lived reality of the Church: all are needed to serve and celebrate.

During the pandemic, many liturgical ministries of the church were minimized or eliminated. A minimalist liturgy makes for a service that is meager and wanting—a weak image of the Church! Altar servers were replaced by book stands; lay readers were replaced by clergy; musical elements were reduced as if unimportant.

Now that post-pandemic life is emerging, a moment of grace lies before us calling parishes to revitalize their worship; to invite back ministers who stepped down during the pandemic and to install additional ones where needed. Now is the time to restore the parts of the Mass and the function of ministers required for a rich, full celebration of the liturgy. With properly prepared ministers assisting at worship, the faithful are better able to encounter Christ in the Assembly, the Word and the Eucharist. The Church cannot afford to minimize its experience of prayer when so many need the presence of Christ in their lives. With the full use of clerical and lay ministries, worship will come alive again.
